

International Collaboration for Participatory Health Research (ICPHR) Conference

10.00	Tea/Coffee Reception and Opening Address
10.15	Keynote Speaker: Dr Jon Salsberg, McGill University, Canada	Learning from the Community: Community-Based Lessons for Academic and Clinical Participatory Health Research
10.45	Short Oral Presentation: Dr Ruth Mc Menamin, National University of Ireland, Galway	People with Aphasia as co-researchers in service evaluation: A participatory health research study
11.05	Keynote Speaker: Dr Lisa Gibbs, University of Melbourne, Australia	Scaling up participatory research projects with children- How can we provide opportunities for children to take leadership on health research at a local, national and international level?
11.35	Short Oral Presentation: Angeline Traynor, National University of Ireland, Galway	Participatory methods inform the design of a novel Internet-based pain management programme for children with chronic pain and their parents
11.55	Open Discussion	Open Discussion with founding members of the International Collaboration for Participatory Health Research (ICPHR)
12.15	PHR Workshop: Dr Harry Shier, CESESMA, Nicaragua	The characteristics of a participative researcher
1.00	Lunch and Poster Presentations
1.45	Short Oral Presentation: Dr Ann O' Kelly, National University of Ireland, Galway	Trusting the Process of Participatory Research: A Case Study of Research into Children's and Young People's Experience of Parental Divorce and Subsequent Family Change in Ireland
14.05	Keynote Speaker: Professor Anne MacFarlane, University of Limerick	Participatory implementation research to improve healthcare for migrants: the EU RESTORE project
14.35	PHR Workshop: Dr Tina Cook, Northumbria University, Newcastle and Dr Sarah Banks, Durham University, UK.	Dilemmas Cafe: exploring ethical challenges in participatory research
15.45	Closing Discussion and Remarks

